CORAM: DR.S.RADHAKRISHNAN AND S.J.VAZIFDAR, JJ.

DATED: 2ND AUGUST, 2006

P.C. :

Heard the learned counsel for the Appellants and the learned counsel for the Respondent.

2. After hearing the parties for some time, the Respondent workman, who is personally present in Court has agreed voluntarily to amicably settle the above matter on the condition that the Appellants shall pay back wages at 40% of full back wages upto 13.5.2002 and also the Appellants shall provide employment to the Respondent with Tata Mills with all terminal benefits and continuity of service at the time of retirement. Accordingly, we direct the Appellants to compute the back wages from the date of termination till 13.5.2002, at 40%, and pay the same, within a period of four weeks from today.

3. Ms.Doshi, the learned counsel for the Appellants states that the Respondent will be taken on duty with Tata Mills within two weeks from today with continuity of service and all consequential benefits, for the purpose of retiral benefits.

4. In view of the above, the learned Single Judge's order stands substituted by the above order, and the Appeal stands disposed of accordingly.
